Smith stars for Albion

Aston Villa kicked off the first game against newcomers Everton, the match could have gone either way with chances at both ends however a 1-1 draw was a fair result Daniel Berney for Villa and George Fletcher for Everton.

Last seasons champions Yorkshire CP FC faced an improved Sporting Albion side who included Rohit Bhardwaj from Villa, and one to watch this season Thomas Smith from Ipswich.

Albion opened the scoring through Thomas Smith who linked well with Matt Hampton to fire home, Joe Jackson replied for Yorkshire, with a draw on the cards Rohit Bhardwaj jinked in with the winner with only seconds to go 2-1 to Albion. Man Utd then faced Aston Villa and ran out 2-1 winners, James Gallagher and Tom Nelson for United and Matt Nagle in reply for Villa on his debut.

Sporting Albion's duo of Smith and Bhardwaj were on hand once again scoring one a piece in the 2-1 victory over Everton, George Fletcher in reply.

Man Utd versus Yorkshire, last season there were more ding dong's than Big Ben and this game was a cracker, United had the early chances but Yorkshire's defence and in particular Josh Percival were brilliant.

Mid-way through the second half Joe Jackson opened the score beating two United defenders and slotting home the winner for a Yorkshire 1-0 win.

Derby rivals Villa and Albion had a very good game, however in-form Albion claimed all the points in a 2-0 win, Rohit Bhardwaj and Matt Hampton netting for the Albion.

Man Utd edged out Everton with last season's top goal scorer Steven Kitching getting the important winner in the 1-0 score line.

Yorkshire and Aston Villa had a close encounter, Daniel Berney opening the score for Villa and as quick as a flash Josh Percival levelling for Yorkshire in the first half. The second half was nip and tuck with both sides defending well, but Daniel popped up for his second from a corner Villa winning 2-1.

In form Albion faced Man Utd and the game was brilliant for the neutral to watch, Thomas Smith opened the score for Albion early on and just before the half-time whistle Sam McGovern-Scott levelled.

After the restart United went close through Harry Crooke, Thomas Smith however took his chance being put through by Matt Hampton to claim his second in the 2-1 win for Albion.

In the final fixture of the day Yorkshire had a close match against Everton, Josh Percival on hand to score the winner in the 1-0 outcome for Yorkshire.

Dyson cleans Up

Aston Villa Marvels opened the first match of the season against Nottingham's Bingham Outlaws, in a very close encounter Joe Gibbons scored the winner for the Marvels in the second half the match ending 1-0.

Yorkshire CP FC started where they finished last season extremely strong, with new signing Edward Dyson scoring a hat-trick against Aston Villa Marvels in the 3-0 score line.

Bingham Outlaws then faced Yorkshire, Bingham held Yorkshire for most of the match but a goal-mouth melee ended in an own goal for Yorkshire and in the next minute Edward Dyson rifled home to ensure maximum points for Yorkshire in the 2-0 win.

Aston Villa Marvels and Bingham shared the spoils in the 0-0 draw, despite chances at either end.

Owen Millington opened his account in the second half for Yorkshire against Aston Villa Marvels, and that was how the match finished Yorkshire winning 1-0.

The final match saw Yorkshire where they started off on a winning run defeating the Outlaws 4-1, Edward Dyson 2 and Luke French 2 for Yorkshire and the improving Barney Corrall for the Outlaws in reply.
