Nottingham 2015
The Role of a Team Host
Ali Talbot
World Games Event Director
Chief Executive - Cerebral Palsy Sport
Welcome to the Team Host Team
What is a Functional Area?

So if a redhead goes crazy, Is it called Ginger snaps?
Functional Area

- Part of the Structure of Games Operations
- Different work areas are themed into Functional Areas (FA’s)
- Team Host is its own Functional Area as it has such a broad combination of roles for volunteers.
The Roles

- Airport Arrivals
- Games Village Welcome
- Games Village Orientation Tour
- Airport Departures
- Games Ceremonies - Awards Party
Team Hosts

Team Hosts will be the first and last Games faces that the teams will see.

They will travel on Games Transport to meet the athletes from the airport, travel back with them to the Athlete’s Village and help them to check into the Village.

Where appropriate Team Hosts may also help induct their allocated team into the Village and help them become familiar with their new surroundings.

When the Games have finished, the Team Hosts will accompany their allocated team back to the airport for their return journey home.
