Volunteer Village to Harvey Hadden

Bus Travel

A map of Nottingham City Travel bus routes can be found HERE.

And links to bus timetables can be found HERE.

There are a number of options available to get into town from the Volunteer Village and then to competition venues.

To get to Harvey Hadden by bus you will need to go from Clifton (choice of stops outlined below) to the City, Beastmarket Hill B2 bus stop (end of the line). From here it is a 5 minute walk to the Upper Parliament St U2 stop where you need to get the number 28 bus to the Graylands Road stop outside Harvey Hadden.

To get back to Clifton, you will need to get the number 28 from Graylands Road, to the Victoria Centre. It is then a 10 minute walk to the Beastmarket Hill B2 bus stop to get the return bus to Clifton.

Buses From Clifton

Bus services from directly outside NTU Campus (North Gate) into town – 1 & 1a.

Bus services from Fabis Drive – (5-10 min walk from campus down the hill)

Towards town - 1, 1a, 2, 3, 48, 48a
