Sports Development Newsletter #20

Hello!

Welcome to your monthly update from the Sports Development team at Cerebral Palsy Sport.

We've got lots of news and events to share with you, including a fantastic day the FA Disability Cup Finals at St George's Park. Please take a few minutes to read.

If you have taken part in a Cerebral Palsy Sport event in the last year, please could you help with a quick participation feedback survey for us:

<https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/Y76HH5M>

This helps us to keep improving our events for you!

We've also got some new sports team members to introduce to you - find out more below.

Enjoy!

Sports team staff update

You may have noticed we have been having a recent recruitment drive. We are pleased to introduce three new members of staff to the Cerebral Palsy Sport team:

Peter Nicolls - National Disability Football Coach.

Peter has a wealth of Disability Football Coaching including at Cerebral Palsy United FC
Ed Pearce - National Disability Sports Officer
Some of you might know Ed from his previous roles with Wheelpower and CP Sport so we are welcoming back Ed!
Richard Kerr - National Disability Sports Officer.
Richard is joining us from Central College Nottingham where he was as College Sports Maker, increasing student and staff participation in sport.

They are all looking forward to meeting you at our events soon!
